Final Reflection

The LLM that performed better is Gemini because it was way more accurate of what I wanted it to generate and produce compared to chatgpt. It was way more detailed and more accurate to the prompt I made. The difference that I observed was gemini actually made a resume but chatgpt just made a list. The improvements I made to the final resume is that I was more detail and put more emphasis that is was a resume. What I learned about prompting is that details is everything.
